

Find an archipelago on your globe, and write its name in your land and water book.	Make an archipelago in a pan with clay and water.
Cut and paste a system of lakes on a sheet of paper, and put it in your land and water book.	Find a system of lakes on your globe, and write its name and continent in your land and water book.
Blindfold a partner, and have your partner feel and guess a land or water form.	Draw an island, and put it in your land and water book.
Find a peninsula on your globe, and write its name and continent in your land and water book.	Find two gulfs on your globe, and write their names in your land and water book.
Paint a lake, and put it in your land and water book.	Make an isthmus in a pan with clay and water.

Find a bay on your globe, and write its name in your land and water book.	Make a strait in a pan with clay and water.
Cut and paste a cape on a sheet of paper, and put it in your land and water book.	Locate all seven continents on your globe.
Describe a land or water form to a partner, and have them guess which one you are defining.	Locate three continents in the northern hemisphere, and write their names in your land and water book.
Find two continents south of the equator on your globe.	Choose a continent on your globe, and write the names of the oceans that surround it in your land and water book.
Locate the continents that cross the equator.	Locate two archipelagos, and write the names of the oceans they are in in your land and water book.

Write the names of the continents that border the Pacific Ocean.	Write the names of the continents that border the Atlantic Ocean.
On your globe, locate an island in the Indian Ocean, and write its name in your land and water book.	On your globe, find the two straits that separate the United States from other countries, and write their names in your land and water book.
Locate two states that are peninsulas, and write their names in your land and water book.	On your globe, locate two continents that are connected, and write their names in your land and water book.
Paint a system of lakes, and put it in your land and water book.	Cut and paste an isthmus on a sheet of paper, and put it in your land and water book.
Trace the shape of a continent, and put it in your land and water book.	Label all the continents on a continent map.